Paris Rumours Of Accord With F.L.N. Envoys

PARIS (Reuters). — Rumours swept Paris last night of an agreement between French representatives and F.L.N. envoys, who were in Paris for a meeting with the French government.

The Prime Minister, M. De Gaulle, had a meeting with the envoys in the evening, and it was reported that the meeting was successful.

There were four major topics which ranked high in the Prime Minister's talks with the French, Belgian and Dutch leaders — the international situation, Israel's political and security needs, Afro-Asian developments and Israel's integration into Western Europe's economy.

The agreement believed to have been reached on these points, was to be the basis for a new treaty, which was also referred to in the letter sent by the French Premier, M. De Gaulle, to Mr. Ben-Gurion prior to his departure from Europe.
